Caesarea

Caesarea National Park

ARCHAEOLOGICAL GEM

Dedicated by Herod the Great to Caesar Augustus more than 2,000 years ago, Caesarea boasts a spectacular view of the sea, but its claim to fame is an archaeological park that includes an amphitheatre, breathtaking harbor and the Crusader city ruins. You can easily spend the day here soaking in the sights and enjoying a fine meal at one of the many restaurants. The amphitheatre hosts music concerts during the summer.
